

ERASURE REQUEST FORM

- I am
- Private individual
 - Company Representative or co-operative partner
 - Job seeker (current or former)
 - One-time reward recipient

I base my request for erasure on the following items in the Data Protection Regulation:

- My personal data is no longer needed for the purposes for which they were collected or for which they were otherwise processed.
- I cancel my consent, and there is no other legitimate reason for doing so.
- I object on grounds relating with a particular personal situation and there is no legitimate reason for processing my personal data.
- I object to the processing of my personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- My personal data has been processed unlawfully.
- My personal data must be removed to comply with the legal obligation of the Aller Group based on the law of the European Union or the law of a Member State.
- My personal data has been collected in connection with the provision of information society services, such as the registration of the Data Controller's digital information service.

Please note that there is no erasure right if your personal data is still processed by the Aller Group:

- a) to exercise the right to freedom of expression and freedom of information;
- b) to comply with the applicable statutory obligation to be applied to the Aller Group (such as the continuing customer relationship and the obligation under the Accounting law to keep purchasing information on the year of purchase and 6 years afterwards); or
- c) the preparation, presentation or defense of a legal claim.
